

COMMENTS ON PRESELECTION IMAGES

- It's no 3 for me for 'Trophy Hunter'. It looks like the kind of thing you see in old images of 'successful' shoots.
- I like the first one too, but for me it is slightly ambiguous as the lion has his trophy but looks a little as if he is caring for his prey. Without seeing the rest of the series I don't know whether that potential dual meaning is a good thing?
- Wow. These are really great. I like 1 and 2. If i had to choose i would go for number 2, when i saw it the first thing that came to mind was the shadow of death because of how the light falls. Well done.
- Great photos and hard to choose without seeing the others. I like the light and angles in 4 most of all though the lion still looks as though he is threatening to shoot his victim here as opposed to showing off his trophy. Probably opt for 3 for that reason.
- No 3 for me. It has the right vibe about trophy hunting. I'm not sure I totally understand the lion mask, but maybe that is explained in the contextualisation and first two images.
- I think that they are great fun and throw up the debates of hunter becoming hunted. Well done
- Really like these. Speak about human disregard for life and gratuitous harm. Foot on corpse is the most poignant to me. 'I've just killed him, but he is of no significance, just something to rest my foot upon and rest from the sport'.
- Great set and I can now understand the David Chancellor connection. For me the foot on the corpse is the most powerful as a statement about man's disregard for the life of other beings and an ignorance/arrogance about the delicate ecologies we live in. Well done for tackling such an important topic.
- Really well-done Lynda. I agree regarding the 'foot on corpse'.
- What a great idea, I like it. The third image does it for me. Those pictures on Twitter and Facebook always get to me, with the whole families posing with their kill
- Hi, My choice would be no.3.
- I like the second and third good stuff!

COMMENTS ON ACTUAL ASSIGNMENT

- It's really great Lynda. The one thing that my tutor mentioned to me was to draw on your contact sheets so it's clear why you have chosen a particular frame. He said to annotate crop ect. May vary from tutor to tutor but he thinks it shows the thought process. Very well done.

- Great theme, such an original idea, I love the over the shoulder shot, I felt like I was the barrel of the gun looking at my prey, hidden in the bush. well done that is one assignment I would have been very happy producing
- This is great, very thorough write up - do impressed that you've got the last assignment finished.
- Original, creative, well researched and executed, great attention, to detail. You have picked up a real moral issue and presented it really well. You should be proud of this.
